Is of Interest To our Readers

This is an apple, large and round, At the top of the barrel always found.

This is the apple, small and mean, Always at the bottom seen.

Bridgewater Independent,

I. O. O. F. meet to-night.

The thermometer registered 91 degrees at noon to-day.

All this yachting talk interferes with politics.

Ts the last breath of summer, all sweltering and warm.—Philadelphia Times.

Isn't there some danger of this yacht race business becoming a bit monotonous.—Yankees Statesman.

Just received at the Crystal Palace Saloon, a carafe of Leon's St. Louis beer, icecold, on draught.

J. B. McEntee, Nagales; A. Sanchez, city, and Mrs. Colby, Wilcox, are registered at the Occidental hotel.

The America's cup is harder to capture than a jock pot. Even four races do not take it.—Boston Post.

The Crystal Palace Saloon will be ready to serve their visitors with the best of Leon's cold beer on draught.

The host of Superers have bought a garden hose and lawn mower for use on the east house lawn.

The beer war in this city has commenced with renewed vigor. Messrs. Clegg & Weier of Litz having just received a car load of Leon's beer direct from St. Louis.

The wind was too light to suit the Greeks. See sans nest in a big bow.
It's English, you know.—Philadelphia Press.

It may be assumed that Boston will postpone to become a country by itself if the Puritan wins again.—Philadelphia Times.

The statement in Barry's boiler plate this morning, that Mr. A. Schwartz had died in Los Angeles, is false, as Mr.
Schwartz is alive and well.

Messrs. Goss, Phillips and T. J. have bought a one-half interest in the Cord and Sonderman ranch at Sojourner Haus, purchasing Mr. Cudl's interest.

Mr. Robt. E. Weston is building a new umber yard on Tonguehill street, next to the V. & W., and will be able to supply our citizens with lumber.

The average land lumber knew a sharp recession in these days. He never goes to bed without planning in the quietest.— Hartford Post.

Beans are no longer a staple article of diet in literary circles in Boston. Their place has been taken by grits and corn field peas. Let the work of reconstruction go on.—Atlanta Constitution.

A man was recently robbed of $2,000 while on his way in the cars from Long Branch to New York. Statements of this kind must be very mortifying to Long Branch bakers and hotel waiters.— Graphic.

An exchange speaks of "the Puritan's know-like-salts," and says that no specks could be found upon them. From the inside up we have been under the impression that everything from Boston had "spots," but the Puritan seems to be the exception.—Yankees Statesman.

Messrs. Caesar & Wehrfritz have completed their first-class ice house in the rear of the Crystal Palace saloon, and are now prepared to give their customers Leon's ice cold beer for 12½ cents per reheater. Don't fail to attend the opening to-night.

Last evening we dropped in to Scand-ding's j. w. establishment and found him engaged in putting a fine line of new caviary. He showed us some handsome watch jobs for ladies' wear, and we would advise the ladies to call and see them before they are all sold.

A letter was received by Joseph Hoff-fer this morning from Mr. Sondz, who is at his ranch, that some Mexican horses had come to the ranch yesterday and left three horses, one bay mare belonging to H. W. Hasselgren and branded H.C. one left shoulder pure black horse branded N.D. on left shoulder, and one grey horse with no brands. They left the above horses at the ranch and took one black horse branded V.X on left shoulder and one white hind foot, star on fore-

Was you in the battle of Shiloh, Pa.?

"Yes, sir, I was, too; and well do I remember that occasion, we fought about 8 o'clock on the afternoon of the second day, s.r. I was in the second infantry, son, fought' with all the power in the sun, with I said. Bayonet sprang out to his minister, that I was disengaged in fight as I could lead and take, set out to be, 'tis no use, but the devil himself is in that thicket, and will' on a woman's' course, by terror' here, beds.
Retreat is the proper thing, now, beggars, and retreat it is. And will that I said him say, son, sir. To the right comes mine. But I've never met you, sir, and kept straight on, perfect of the min's fight as I can, son, sir, and there, beggars, I should, reducing his ranks, sir, the General Great. His son came ridin' up so tight as he could get up, sir, and he galloped to me, sir, and say he, "Save fightin' them, Pa. McClellan, ye bloodhead!" Can't ye say for yourself of the battle's over, sir, and still ye be murtherin' min that gave us the conquer, sir?" Yes, indeed, sir, I was there, sir, and it was me, sir, that did us as us much, sir, to start a graveyard, sir, as us mix, sir."—Chicago Daily.

The most important issue in the early days of a Chinese baby is the question which his first mouthfuls lie to contract.
If the baby is a boy, and particularly if he be born, all the relatives and connections from far and near are looked to come to a grand feast in honor of the happy day. No man is expected to arrive empty handed. The demand for the celebrated New Orleans clair being so great, Aspinwall & Walker have just received a few samples.

work for Uncle Sam's new post office.

The Daily papers after a full day's day begin.

Chinese parents are about to give their they can find. In consequence of which it is said that Evelyn, May and Alice, whose mothers neglect this important duty, can expect to be buried before the year is past.
